Additional Information...

Tenting (Please choose one): I will bring my own tent. I wish to borrow a dome style tent from the Council.

Please Initial that you have read and understand each item below...

_____ I understand that I must attend the entire Wood Badge course. I understand that the first weekend begins at 8AM Friday morning and runs through 5PM Sunday afternoon and that the second weekend begins at 8AM on Saturday morning and runs through 5PM Monday afternoon.

_____ I understand when I arrive at the Wood Badge Course I will be required to submit a completed Boy Scouts of America Medical Form signed by a physician within one year of the first day of the course. I further understand that I may be asked to submit to a medical re-check by the camp's health officer.

_____ I understand that I must complete the on-line training course "This is Scouting" and the basic leader training for my primary Scouting position prior to the first day of the Wood Badge course.

_____ I agree to follow all of the rules and regulations of the Boy Scouts of America, and to let the Scout Oath and Scout Law guide my actions and behavior during the Wood Badge course.

_____ I understand the Council will be sending me additional information regarding the Wood Badge course including a list of items to bring to the course, the BSA Physical Form, a Wood Badge Participant Questionnaire and other information about sixty days prior to the course. The information will be sent to the contact information listed above. If my contact information should change I understand it is my responsibility to notify the Scout Service Center and to keep this information current.

_____ I am looking forward to participating in a great leadership development program.
